SPOTLIGHT ON EL NIÑO OF 2026-2027

By Adrienne O'Keeffe

Earlier this year, a powerful El Niño started building in the Pacific Ocean. Although, this is thousands of miles away from Meadview, this El Niño has had an impact on weather in our area. One of the most recent weather events we've felt as a result of El Niño storms caused the Chamber to postpone the date of the Oktoberfest to October 25. This was a difficult choice for the Chamber to make, but kudos to the board making the right decision. Although the weather we had that weekend was less than was predicted, the rainfall definitely would have put a damper on the festival. Predictions for October 25 are for clear skies, no rain and gentle winds of 2-8 mph with possible gusts up to 10 mph. The temperature forecasted will be 70 degrees for the high and a low of 53 degrees.

Weather predictions are more accurate than ever before making it easier to prepare for the impact of a storm. In Northern Arizona, we are experiencing weather that includes the words hurricanes and tornado warnings. Both are unlikely weather events for Arizona, but all the trends have changed because of this El Niño that has now earned the name Super El Niño. The Pacific Ocean where El Niño is most active has reached the warmest temperatures ever recorded.

The National Oceanic and Atmosphere Administration (NOAA) has released its first winter forecast ahead of the 2026-27 winter season. El Niño will have a strong effect on the season, specifically with regard to precipitation. Arizona is expected to see above-average precipitation as rain or snow. Temperatures are less certain, but could be impacted by storm systems that pass. If precipitation pans out, it could help alleviate short-term drought. Humphreys Peak, the highest mountain in Arizona, reported 4" of snow as of October 12 according to Snow Bowl officials.

Key El Niño impacts in the Southwest can include: more precipitation, improved soil moisture and mountain snowpack. We can expect more storms, but not continuous rain. There may be cooler periods and fewer warm extremes and more frequent storms and cloud cover favor cooler daytime temperatures. However, El Niño does not necessarily mean a colder winter overall. There is a potential transition to La Niña next year. El Niño events are often followed by La Niña, which favors warmer and drier Southwest winters. It is too early to know whether La Niña will develop in 2027, but it will be important to watch as El Niño weakens next spring. When the Meadview area experiences a wetter winter climate, the wild flowers will have a heavy spring bloom.

It is too early to predict how the anticipated increased winter rainfall will impact Lake Mead. Snow pack usually has a greater effect on the lake levels than rainfall. This will be something that will be watched closely by the Bureau of Reclamation. No matter what happens, we should enjoy this wetter winter for the benefits it will bring.

COUNTY CORNER
By Lydia Henry
Mohave County Recorder

October Greetings from Lydia Henry, Mohave County Recorder. As we enter October, the Mohave County Recorder's Office is focused on serving residents and supporting our community during this important voting season. We're pleased to share updates from the Recorder's Office, voter registration information, and key dates for the upcoming General Election.

Recorder's Office Updates:

The Mohave County Recorder's Office continues to improve public records access and strengthen the recording process. Beginning September 11, 2026, individuals recording documents in person must provide valid photo identification. Property sale or transfer documents must also include the most current Affidavit of Property Value required by the Arizona Department of Revenue.

The office recently celebrated two years of its free Recorded Document Alert System, which notifies residents when documents are recorded under their name or associated with their property.

Veterans are also encouraged to take advantage of free DD214 recordings for the safekeeping of their military records. For questions, call (928) 753-0701 or email RecorderHelp@mohave.gov

Voter Registration & General Election

With the General Election approaching, the Mohave County Recorder's Office and Voter Registration Division are supporting voters with early voting by mail and in person. Voters are encouraged to make sure their registration information is current and review their voting options before Election Day on November 3. A new Arizona law for the 2026 elections allows voters returning an early ballot in person to present valid identification. Once their identity is verified, the ballot can be marked "ID Verified," eliminating the need for additional signature verification.

Residents can also help keep voter records accurate by writing "Return to Sender" on election mail for someone who no longer lives at the address or has passed away and returning it through the mail.

General Election Early Voting

Eligible voters may vote early at the following locations:

KINGMAN 3269 N. Burbank St., Kingman, AZ 86409 Monday–Friday, October 7–30 10 a.m.–4 p.m. Extended hours until 7 p.m. on Friday, October 30

BULLHEAD CITY 1170 Hancock Rd., Bullhead City, AZ 86442 Monday–Friday, October 7–30 10 a.m.–4 p.m. Extended hours until 7 p.m. on Friday, October 30

LAKE HAVASU CITY 1770 McCulloch Blvd. N., Lake Havasu City, AZ 86403 Monday–Friday, October 7–30 10 a.m.–4 p.m. Extended hours until 7 p.m. on Friday, October 30

COLORADO CITY 480 S. Central St., Colorado City, AZ 86021 October 16 & 17 6 a.m.–7 p.m.

The Voter Registration Division mails early ballots, operates early voting locations, processes returned ballots, and verifies signatures before securely transferring ballots to the Elections Department for tabulation.

Important Election Dates

October 23 – Last day to request an early ballot by mail

October 30 – Last day to vote early in person

November 3 – Election Day

If you receive an early ballot by mail, we encourage you to vote it early and return it promptly.

For additional updates, follow the office on Facebook at Mohave County AZ Voter Registration and Instagram at VoteMohave. For questions about voter registration, early voting, or early ballots, contact the Voter Registration Division at (928) 753-0767 or voterregistration@mohave.gov.

Recorder's Office Location

MAIN OFFICE 700 W. Beale St. Kingman, AZ 86401 (928) 753-0701 | 8 a.m.–5 p.m.

MAILING ADDRESS P.O. Box 7000 Kingman, AZ 86402

As we move through October and toward Election Day, we encourage Mohave County residents to stay informed, review their voter information, and make a plan to participate in the General Election.

It is an honor and privilege to serve as your Mohave County Recorder.

MISSING IN AMERICA PROJECT DINNER AND BAKE AUCTIONOctober 10, 2026

By Rhonda Follett-

President VFW Auxiliary to Post 11014

I first want to start out and thank all who braved in impending storm for showing up to support the Auxiliary of Post 11014. Your support means so much in keeping our Auxiliary going strong, being able to take care of our former, present and future Veterans and their families is our goal.

Next, I need to say without our members volunteering for our Dinners, Auctions, Raffles and other activities, we could not help Veterans in our community, cities, states and across the world. We help all Veterans. We want to bring awareness to not only the ones in need of a once in a while item and to bring awareness to the Homeless Veterans, the Veteran who need attention before he becomes one of the 18 down from 22, who commit suicide on a daily basis.

The dinner we held on the 10th was to help the Veteran who has gone unclaimed on a Moutray shelf for who knows how long. The Project of Missing in America is a worthy cause worthy of our support. I take pride in my Auxiliary and Post Comrades for donating, ideas, time and money to helping us get seven veterans off that shelf and give them a dignified transfer from unclaimed to rightful honor of his last resting place in a Veteran Cemetery in our Country.

So, with that being said I would like to start the Thank Yous. First. to the VFW Post members of 11014 for help giving us a place to cook and hold our dinner and auction. I want to thank Commander Bill Zajc and Sr. Vice Commander Thomas Hargreaves for their attendance and participation. Also, thank you to the members of the Post who attended.

Now to the wonderful Auxiliary of which I have the great honor of being President. In attendance, I want to thank my officers, Jr. Vice President Debbie Barr, Conductor Debbie Flannigan, Chaplain Ada Freeman, Treasurer Beau Abrams, Trustees Becky Peckham, Chris White and Kathy Doran. I also thank the many members who were present for not only the dinner, but the auction. Without out all of us we could not be the outstanding Auxiliary that we have been as long as I have been a member.

Now for those who volunteered their time working from preparing advertising, setting up, cooking, serving and clean up, donating food, cakes, cookies, pies and art items and the beautiful quilts, pillows and pillow cases.

Okay, here goes: Chris White for Spaghetti Sauce, Lori Miller - Homemade rolls with her team: Ada Freeman, Alice Nies, Jen Abrams, Tami Nies, Barb Loper. Salad, Rhonda Follett, Tami Nies and Jannette Hand, Set up - Becky Peckham, Beau Abrams, Jen Abrams and Rhonda Follett. Door attendants - Becky Peckham, Kathy Doran. Servers - Barb Loper, Jannette Hand- and Tami Nies. Baked goodies - Chris White, Rhonda Follett, Suz Wood, Ada Freeman, Jeannie Hampton, Connie Hargraves, Heather, Mama Lou, Alice Nies, Candy Kirby. We did have peanut butter cookies donated but I did not get a name of the maker. Art items - Paula Foster. Quilts, Pillows - Irma England via Lynn Wright. Auctioneer Kathy Doran with help from Beau and Jen Abrams and Becky Peckham.

I do have to give a special thank you to our cooks David and Chrystal. I called them on Thursday and asked if they would do me a favor and without hesitation the answer was yes. You two have no idea how much that not only meant to our Auxiliary, but to me personally.

I so hope I did not miss anyone if I did, please note I do thank you just as much as the ones mentioned. I was trying my best to write them down but you know how that goes sometimes.

MEADVIEW HISTORICAL SOCIETYMHS Introduces Monday Movie Matinees

The Meadview Historical Society is making a change to its community movie program. In response to requests for an earlier movie time - and with the shorter days of fall and winter upon us - we will be giving Monday Movie Matinees a try.

Monday Movie Matinees will be held on the first Monday of each month at 2:00 PM, beginning Monday, November 2, at The Barn Event Center, 470 Pueblo Drive in Meadview.

Our matinees will replace the First Friday evening movie schedule. We hope the afternoon time will make it easier and more comfortable for members of our community to join us for a good movie, some fun, and time with friends and neighbors.

Watch for announcements of upcoming movie selections. We look forward to seeing you at the movies!

ANTHONY'S SPORTS CORNER

Congratulations to the Milwaukee Brewers for becoming the National League Champions. They beat the LA Dodgers in four games straight to make it to the World Series. Also, congratulations to the Tampa Bay Rays for winning the American League Championship. The World Series will start on October 23rd with Game 1 in Milwaukee. The Brewers have home field advantage. I am going with the Milwaukee Brewers to win it all.

In the NFL, the Arizona Cardinals won this past Sunday in the last second of the game with a field goal that made it 18-15 against the LA Rams. Our record is now 2-4. Hopefully, the Cardinals are on a winning streak.

The WNBA Championship Series started on Saturday, October 17 with the Atlanta Dream vs. the Golden State Valkyries. Both teams are fighting for their first WNBA Championship.

The NBA season starts October 20. Hopefully, the Phoenix Suns will have a great year.

College Football was very interesting this past weekend. The teams holding the #1, 2, 5, 6, 7 spots all lost. And the top five teams are all different from one week ago. The Georgia Bulldogs are #5, #4 is Notre Dame, #3 is Ohio State, #2 is BYU. And the #1 team is Miami. Miami and BYU are the only undefeated teams left. Be sure to keep watching college football as the standing will probably change next week. This is one of the reasons why I love college football.

NASCAR is in Week 8 of the Cup Series. They are headed to Talladega, Alabama to race at the Talladega Superspeedway. Then in Week 9 of the Cup Series, they will head to Martinsville, Virginia to race at the Martinsville Speedway.

College Basketball will start November 1. I hope Arizona will do as good as they did last year.

As always, you can watch your favorite sports events at Anthony's Fisherman's Landing Bar. Until the next issue, my friends, keep watching sports.

IT'S WORLD SERIES TIME

Facts to Know About the Tampa Bay Rays/
Milwaukee Brewers World Series

Neither team has ever won a World Series and this is the first time this has happened since 1980. At the end of the series, there will be four teams that have never won a World Series: the loser of this series, the Colorado Rockies, the Seattle Mariners and the San Diego Padres.

This is the second World Series appearance for the Brewers and the third for the Rays.

Tampa Bay's two top pitchers are former Brewers.

Both teams have two of the lowest payrolls teams in MLB.

Kevin Cash of Tampa Bay is the longest-tenured manager in MLB.

This is the first World Series since 2018 to not feature teams from California or Texas.

This is the 122nd World Series. The games begin on Friday, October 23 at Milwaukee.
